

CURSILLO MOVEMENT DIOCESE OF HAMILTON WANT TO BE ON TEAM - CRITERIA

The Secretariat is compiling a list of Cursillistas who are interested, qualified and available to be on team. There is no guarantee that by completing the “Want To Be On Team” information form you will be chosen to serve on a team, but your request will be given serious consideration.

Please read the Criteria, Considerations and Commitments section below, before filling in and submitting this form.

Team Selection Criteria:

- It is preferable that you have been practicing as much of the Cursillo method as you are able, which includes Group Reunion, Ultreya, and School of Leaders. It is very difficult to witness to and/or be an example of the method of the Cursillo movement if you are not “Walking the Talk”.
- If you are involved in other church movements, please be prepared to set these aside during Cursillo weekends, and preparatory meetings leading up to the Cursillo Weekend, so that the team and all candidates can fully experience the Cursillo movement as a whole.
- As this is a Catholic movement, only practicing Roman Catholics are eligible as team members. This means you are a Catholic in good standing within church laws and if living in a relationship, that it is a marriage blessed by the Catholic Church and you are eligible to receive the sacraments.

Team Selection Considerations:

- A balance between those who have been on team and new Cursillistas who also wish to be on team is an important consideration.
- New Cursillistas often help provide new ideas and inject vitality into the movement.

Personal Considerations:

- Anyone who is in crisis should give themselves time to deal with their struggles and time to heal before serving on team.

Team Commitments:

- Be willing to attend all of the 5/6 preparatory team meetings so no crucial messages are missed and that proper bonding of the team takes place before the weekend.
- Be willing to attend the team retreat (usually an evening prior to the Weekend).
- Must participate in the full 3 days, including Thursday night.
- Post Cursillo Weekend, you are expected to help the new Cursillistas become integrated into the Cursillo community by encouraging them to attend Ultreya with you and help them to join and/or start a group reunion as soon as possible and attend with them if necessary for awhile.
- A payment will be requested from you towards the expenses of the weekend. The requested contribution for the weekend for Team and Kitchen Team members is a minimum of $100 per person. ($200.00 is the minimum requested contribution for each Candidate.)
- A Tax Receipt will be given for any amount in excess of the minimum.
- As with Candidates, no Team Member will be refused due to inability to pay.

Thank You for wanting to be on team.
